2016 Miami | Latin American Claims (re) Insurance Forum

The Latin American Claims (re) Insurance Forum is a unique and exclusive event in Miami for career advancement and networking. Sessions are collaborative and sharing experiences is encouraged. The forum will be a dynamic assembly of key London, International, and Latin American experts analyzing top issues and developments that affect Latin American & Caribbean claims. It is a must-attend.

My attendance at the 2015 Latin American Claims (re) Insurance forum was of great professional interest, as well as a fantastic opportunity to be in direct contact with the Latin American (re) insurance market in the international hub of Miami.

Pablo González. AXIS Re Europe. Senior Claims Specialist.

Thanks for making this such a great event and I can only imagine the amount of time this has taken up. I've gone through the organising of the Power forum for the last 9 years with Richard Foulger and others and that is only 1 day and I know how tough that is. Thanks for thinking of me and once again great job

Nick Barber. Head of Property and Energy Claims. AIG.

This was a very productive session and hopefully provided the audience with some valuable takeaways. Thanks to all who participated so actively in the discussions.

Michael La-Band. Claims Manager - Property Group at Beazley
